

Part IV

Worldwide Experience and World Trend

---

This part outlines SEA developments/ practices in several jurisdictions outside Hong Kong. Formal provisions for undertaking SEA are now emerging around the world.

It is important to note that the EIA Law of Mainland China, which came into force in September 2003, also sets out the requirements for environmental assessment of plans in addition to projects.