

VSR 3 Hikers in western Lantau South Country Park – vegetation and topography often block views along sections of the trails

Figure 11.7a

Restricted views to Project from VSRs (Sheet 1 of 5)

DATE: 12/01/2018

Environmental Resources
Management

VSR 12 Hikers in eastern Lantau South Country Park – vegetation and topography often block views along sections of the trails

Figure 11.7b

Restricted views to Project from VSRs (Sheet 2 of 5)

VSR 9 Recreational viewers on Lamma Island – Overview looking north to LPS from south west trails of Lamma (image #1) and images showing outlook from various parts of the trail are obscured by vegetation (images #2, 3), even at the pagoda site (image #4). A worst case scenario view from Lo So Shing Beach has been selected to represent this VSR's views of the LPS GRS

VSR10 Inhabitants of Lamma - Yung Shue Wan area. *View from the ferry pier shows views towards the Project are largely obscured by the LPS, breakwater and existing infrastructure
(Image #5)*

Figure 11.7c

Restricted views to Project from VSRs (Sheet 3 of 5)

VSR 8a Inhabitants of Cheung Chau (Residential) & VSR 8b Visitors to Cheung Chau (Recreational)

From the ferry landing point at Cheung Chau Wan or Wai Wan, views are blocked by moored vessels and the breakwater (images #1, 2, 4)

Along trails in the south east, vegetation often obstructs views out to the seascape (image #3)

Figure 11.7d

Restricted views to Project from VSRs (Sheet 4 of 5)

1

Existing Black Point Power Station
largely obscured from view

VSR 16 Visitors to Black Point Hill and nearby area – vegetation and topography from just off Nim Wan Road largely blocks views of BPPS. Only the very tall chimneys and part of the fuel tanks are visible

2

Existing Black Point Power Station
largely obscured from view

VSR 16 Visitors to Black Point Hill and nearby area – vegetation on Black Point Headland largely blocks views of BPPS. Only the very tall chimneys and part of the fuel tanks are visible

Figure 11.7e

Restricted views to Project from VSRs (Sheet 5 of 5)

DATE: 12/01/2018

Environmental Resources
Management

