Note to Readers

1 The Environmental Monitoring and Audit (EM&A) Guidelines for Development Projects in Hong Kong (the Guidelines) serve as a general reference for environmental monitoring and audit practice and do not prohibit nor constrain the exercise of the laws in Hong Kong.

2 Information contained in the Guidelines may be freely used. Reproduction of materials is permitted with notification to the Director of Environmental Protection. Acknowledgement must be made by referencing the title of this publication.

3 You are invited to make available to the Director of Environmental Protection any comments and suggestions for the use in the updating of the Guidelines in later editions.
