Water for the agricultural activities is extracted from the adjacent stream therefore it is not affected by the proposed intake.

Although these agricultural activities are located at the downstream end of the proposed intake, there is no deleterious effect to them. Please refer to section 5.6.2 for the detailed assessment.

Figure 5.11
Agricultural Activities near Intake Structure I-2