

Project: Tsim Sha Tsui Station Northern Subway	Location: Tsim Sha Tsui	Ref # NRS-05
Originally Recorded: 13.08.02	Updated On: 10.10.07
Original Usage: Military Barracks (Block S4)	Current Usage: Education Centre
Orientation: Current Entrance faces East	Map Reference: N/A
Construction Date: 1910	Ownership: Hong Kong SAR Government
Setting: Kowloon Park	Historical Associations: None
Condition: Good	Degree of Modification: Moderate to High
Architectural Significance: Moderate	Cultural Significance: Moderate
Description: Two storey rectangular structures with pitched roof with the original design of the building having covered walkway on ground floor and verandah on 1st storey with flat roof over these sections. Modern windows have been inserted into the former openings. A modern brick entrance room has been added to the Eastern side of the building facing Nathan Road. There are also two granite columns on the steps leading up to the current entrance of the building that were removed from a building belonging to the Eu Yan Sang Medicine company.
Inscriptions: N/A
Additional Notes: Grade III Historical Building

Modern entrance to Block S4 (Brick façade with original structure behind (White wall))

View of the Northeastern corner of Block S4 showing the modern windows

View of the North facing elevation of Block S4 taken from Kowloon Park

Two granite columns removed from Eu Yan Sang Medicine company on the steps leading up to the current entrance of the building

Project: Tsim Sha Tsui Station Northern Subway	Location: Tsim Sha Tsui	Ref # NRS-06
Originally Recorded: 13.08.02	Updated On: 10.10.07
Original Usage: Military Barracks (Block 58)	Current Usage: Storage
Orientation: Does not have main entrance (runs in an east west direction)	Map Reference: N/A
Construction Date: 1910	Ownership: Hong Kong SAR Government
Setting: Kowloon Park	Historical Associations: None
Condition: Good	Degree of Modification: Moderate
Architectural Significance: Moderate	Cultural Significance: Moderate
Description: Two storey rectangular structures with pitched roof and covered walkway on ground floor and balcony on 1 st storey with flat roof over these sections. Most of the former openings have been sealed up and painted green.
Inscriptions: N/A
Additional Notes: Grade III Historical Building

View of Block S58 (Southern elevation) from Haiphong Road

View of the south elevation of Block S62 (Heritage Discovery Centre)