

Current Views to YLSTW from Visual Sensitive Receivers

Plate 1 - VSR-01 Recreational Users in Nam Sang Wai Views to YLSTW/YLEPP is obstructed by perimeter trees within the site and these trees are to be retained	Plate 2 - VSR-02 Recreational Users in River Promenade View to YLSTW/YLEPP is obstructed by YLIE buildings and trees

Plate 3 - VSR-03 Occupants in Yuen Long Industrial Estate Within the industrial area, the various building locations and heights with enclosure of boundary fence/ wall and the highly internalized industrial operation create different degree of blockage of views towards the YLSTW/YLEPP.	Plate 4 - VSR-04 Travelers in Wang Lok Street Partially view to YLSTW entrance in Wang Lok Street, and partially blocked by the perimeter trees at YLSTW

Plate 5 - VSR-05 Travelers in Wang Lee Street View toward the YLSTW/YLEPP from the Kowloon Motor Bus Depot, the visibility to YLSTW/YLEPP would slightly increase if no parking buses.	Plate 6 - VSR-06 Occupants in Tai Tseng Shan View from west of YLSTW/YLEPP, where existing dewatering house were partially screened by perimeter trees.

Plate 7 - VSR-07 Residents in Ng Uk Tsuen Views towards YLSTW/YLEPP was mainly blocked by A Kai Shan	Plate 8 - VSR-08 Residents in Leon Court Views towards YLSTW/YLEPP was mainly blocked by A Kai Shan

Plate 9 - VSR-09 Recreational Users in Border Road The 18m tall existing trees provide permanent dense screen and green buffer to YLSTW/YLEPP, which are going to be retained under the Project	Plate 10 - VSR-10 Occupants in Fung Lok Wai The 18m tall existing trees provide permanent dense screen and green buffer to YLSTW/YLEPP, which are going to be retained under the Project

Plate 11 - VSR-11 Travelers in Tai Sang Wai These vegetation/ trees form a natural enclosure higher than normal eye level with no possible view toward the YLEPP.	Plate 12 - VSR-12 Occupants in Agriculture Fisheries and Conservation Office The views toward YLEPP are blocked by the thick tree group to the west.